I offer every player on a rookie contract that's not LeBron James or Michael Jordans $1 million dollars a season to enter our live draft but you gotta get picked no friend or family picks only talent gets you in and you can play as long as you can win one on one against Paul George or Joel Embiid so I think that means you'll on one year deals too but that year is on a resort no bills with your wife and kids no girlfriends are allowed and they must work for you no assistants trainers or help allowed on grounds Jared McCain you know Philly loves you more than Maxey so you know that I get you and Wembanyama if you leave and take the cut I get a team for you to own to make the money up and Paul George, Maxey and Embiid you all get a team if Embiid plays for me same rules and pay as the WNBA and you'll get to watch games you'll want all day one game at a time one stadium no fans all family and coaches and all games are posted worldwide online owners can play only if they are better than all the players left in the draft and they don't play GM and the teams first pick must be their position to compete to start.

wnba on behalf of all yoll so dont settle out when their lawyer's call,
I want all the old legends that retired never making a million bucks come play For the love of the game and get paid a million bucks by
